

Teaching Evaluations

ECON 002: Introduction to Microeconomics (Spring 2024) (TA)

Selected Student Comments:

“She is really well prepared and uses the discussion time very well to address all needed material. She is very good at taking the students through the process of graphing or solving equations etc. and explains the material in an easy to understand way.”

“I liked the attention and the way Ms. Guo explained the problems.”

“Great instructor!”

“Jean was very organized and professional. The discussion section clarified any questions I had about the lecture. She was very thorough when discussing the simulation assignments.”

“I liked how she went over the discussion questions and was very ready to answer any questions that I would have. She had good understanding of the content and was very approachable.”

“Jean was a really helpful micro-econ TA. She breaks down the professor's lectures bit and bit and thoroughly explains them. She makes it easy to understand and encourages us to ask questions.”

“She was the nicest TA ever and explained the course work well. I think her discussions were very useful. I would get a better understanding of the course material from the way she explained it. I enjoyed her discussions and found them helpful as she did an amazing job as well. She also always had a positive attitude during class and made sure to answer our questions to the best of her abilities.”

“Friendly and helpful.”

ECON 002: Introduction to Macroeconomics (Winter 2024) (TA)

Selected Student Comments:

“Jean is very kind and welcoming. She is an excellent TA and ran her discussion class on Tuesday morning at 9AM perfectly.”

“Discussion Notes and Midterm Practice Notes were the best and most organized notes I've ever had from a TA.”

“Jean is a very patient and understanding TA! Because my discussion was the day before lecture, she would break down the agenda and go through each question from the assignment to help us gain an early exposure to what we are about to learn throughout the week. In addition, she was nice and adjusted to the pacing of the class, so if we were struggling to understand the lecture homework, she'll try to find a way to make it simpler. She is definitely a great TA!”

“I found her way of teaching and discussions in general to be simpler and easier to understand during some points throughout the quarter. I like how she thoroughly goes through each topic and always makes sure that we understand before we move on.”

ECON 102: Intermediate Microeconomics (Summer 2022) (Instructor)

Selected Student Comments:

“This class was very interesting, the professor explained everything from the course very well and that made the course easier and gave me a better understanding.”

“Professor Guo is a dedicated, responsible, and understandable person with a lofty enthusiasm for teaching. She does her best to help students, and in order to improve students' understanding of the teaching content, she will try a variety of teaching methods. She is a well-deserved good professor, and if her name is on the list of my future Core Courses, I will definitely choose her again.”

“Instructor Guo was very kind and thoughtful and wouldn't hesitate to explain material multiple times in multiple formats until the students understood!”

“The professor was accommodating and fair in her grading and creation of exam questions.”

“Excellent”

“The instructor was helpful in my learning of the material of this course by uploading recordings of the lecture and the lecture slides to canvas. I really liked that the instructor uploaded the notes solutions to the practice problems. This was really helpful because it allowed me to go back watch the lectures and practice problems to get a better understanding of the material learned in class.”

“I appreciate how understanding and kind the professor was. The slides and real world examples were easy to follow and attending lecture in person really helped me understand the concepts more. I felt the class was engaging and very interesting. I have always disliked studying economics, but this summer class made it easy for me to understand and follow along, despite it being a condensed class. I no longer dislike economics and I feel that I am more confident about my knowledge on this topic. I thank the professor on her flexibility and open-mindedness which was very easy to approach. Thank you for helping me understand economics!”

“Jean tried her best to make accommodations to ensure that students were gaining the most from her lectures, and I was grateful for her allowing students to make considerations in how we could improve our learning experience. I appreciate her concern and desire to encourage students to try doing their best. She made the course very explanatory and provided steps in solving problems that made them easy to follow. Would take again!”

ECON 102: Intermediate Microeconomics (Summer 2021) (TA)

Selected Student Comments:

“Jingyan Guo was an instructor that clarified any question that the students had when something felt confusing the lecture with the professor. Jingyan went through questions, problems, and examples that further explained how to do each different material in the class and was really helpful to me. I wish Jingyan the best!”

“Was very helpful and positive despite the tough subject material.”

“Jingyan was a great aid to my class this summer. She was always available and had her notes/questions prepared beforehand for every class meeting. She provided useful feedback on assignments and was always accessible when I needed.”

“Great combination between Professor Allen and TA Guo. Made this class smooth as can possibly be!”

“Good instructor who helped us in learning the material. No complaints.”

“I enjoyed the notes on every problem set and homework”

“Notes are very clear and concise, grades fairly”

ECON 002: Introduction to Macroeconomics (Spring 2021) (TA)

Selected Student Comments:

“Jingyan is a very excellent TA. She really tries her hardest to encourage student participation. If you ask a question in class, she would always send a follow up email. She is very dedicated to her teaching. Probably amongst the best TAs at UCR! Thank you Jingyan!”

“She helped me so much with her notes. Although I did not participate as much as I should have, I succeeded in the class by attending her sessions.”

“Jingyan was a great TA. Jingyan was super responsive to emails, and in classes, always asked how we were doing. She also uploaded recordings of our section along with notes, so that was very useful. She was clearly very knowledgeable about the subject and was a very reliable TA.”

“Goes through the material step by step in which helped me understand the lecture material much better and better prepared me for the quizzes and exams.”

“Jingyan is very knowledgeable in macroeconomics. She clarifies and further explains things whenever I ask a question in class and would make sure that I understand things before moving on. She always pauses and asks if anyone has questions and continuously mentions to the class that we can always stop her at any time if we get confused. She is very helpful and very kind. She always checks up on us before we start section by asking how everyone is doing and answering everyone in the chat.”

“Very helpful and went above and beyond for the students. Thanks for being willing to help out so much.”

ECON003: Introduction to Microeconomics (Winter 2021) (TA)

Selected Student Comments:

“Great and always available, with no concerns.”

“Very respectable. hope to get her again for a future discussion. Did what was needed when seeking out for help. Was a good quarter with this discussion.”

“Very informative and was very thorough when it came to explaining the course content.”

ECON104A: Intermediate Microeconomics Theory (Fall 2020) (TA)

Selected Student Comments:

“Overall, I really enjoyed your instruction, you were generally clear and concise with your teaching. Thank you for a great quarter, and for being a great TA!”

“I found Jingyan's discussion slides extremely helpful while studying for exams. I mainly used her slides to learn the material for exams. Overall, she was a very sweet TA and always open to answer our questions.”

“Jingyan is one of the best TAs I have had during my time at UCR. Whenever I have some confusion on a topic, she responds back to my emails quickly with a solution and asks me if I would like to schedule a meeting to discuss further. Before finals and midterms, she would sit late hours to go over any questions I had whenever I scheduled a meeting with her. She is the reason I have learned Econ at all this quarter and her enthusiasm carries on into my learning.”

“Jingyan was approachable and helpful during discussion times. She knew the course material thoroughly and answered students' questions carefully to help them understand.”

“Very thoughtful TA, has a clear lesson plan and provided great feedback on past exams. She is also very approachable and made my understanding of the course material better. She was probably one of the best Economics TA that I have had.”

“She was a really good TA, always there to help her students. She was always prepared for her sections, made it easy to understand. She is the only reason I understood content. The professor made this class very unorganized and difficult, but Jingyan helped a lot. Always available to help, motivating her students.”

“Jingyan you are by far and away the best TA I have had. This is my first semester at a university, and you really showed me the value of having someone there who is not a professor. You took a lot of individual time helping me through this Economics class. Your office hours were always helpful, and I always got more out of your discussion than the actual lecture. I cannot express through words how much of a pleasure it was to have you as my TA. Thank you so much, Jingyan Guo.”

“Discussions were informational and helpful. Energy throughout discussions were genuine and easy-going.”

“Really understanding of the situation. Took students feedback and adjusted pace if needed.”